A NEPHEW OF DEWEY

On the Witness Stand In the Schley Court of Inquiry.

HIS VERSION OF DISPUTED FACTS.

Captain Lemley Will Not Be Able to Conclude the Government's Testimony Before the Middle of Next Week.

Washington, Oct. 11.—In the Schley court of inquiry Lieutenant J. H. Holden was re-introduced to continue his examination. Other witnesses were Captain Chadwick, who was Admiral Sampson's chief of staff during the war with Spain, Lieutenant Commander C. C. Marsh and Lieutenant E. L. Bennett, both of whom served on the flagship New York; Lieutenant Adelbert Tithouse of the Massachusetts, Lieutenant Francis Boughter of the Marblehead and Lieutenant William H. Reynolds, who was signal officer on board the Texas.

Captain Lemley supposed he would be able to conclude the presentation of the governments side of the case by the close of this week, but he finds he will still have several witnesses on his list when the court adjourns Saturday. In all probability he will consume the greater part of the first half of next week. Mr. Rayner estimates that the court will not be able to conclude its work before the middle of November.

Among the witnesses called for the purpose of correcting testimony was Admiral C. Taylor. While he was on the stand he was questioned as to whether he had received information that the Spaniards were coming out of the harbor at Santiago before they made their appearance the morning of July 3. The question was asked by Captain Lemley and the answer was: "None whatever."

Mr. Rayner: "You did not get a message from the Vixen in reference to smoke coming out of the harbor?" "None."

Captain Parker: "Your attention was not called to smoke?" "Not at all, sir."

"Do you remember anybody on your vessel who did observe smoke and reported it to you?" "I do not remember."

Captain Lemley read a report from Captain Merrill Miller, formerly of the Raleigh, concerning the accuracy of the stadimeter. This report was dated in 1895 and stated that the stadimeter had been found to give accurate results in measurements of less than 800 yards, but not so when the distance was greater. In one case, the writer noticed an error of 200 yards in a 1,600 yards measurement.

Lieutenant Adelbert Althouse, formerly watch and division officer on the battleship Massachusetts, was then called. He detailed the movements of that vessel in connection with the flying squadron. He said that at Cienfuegos the vessels lay six to 10 miles out at night, going nearer in the day time. Lieutenant Althouse said that the day of the bombardment of the Cristobal Colon he was in charge of the 8-inch turret of the Massachusetts. He said the ship had not been to exceed three minutes in passing the entrance to the harbor on the first passage and that only two shots were then fired. The instructions were to make the range 7,000 yards, but the shots fell short and the range increased on a return trip to 8,500 yards and then to 10,000 yards. Althouse was developed as to the strength of the land batteries by this reconnaissance he said to his mind it was shown they were very weak. In reply to questions as to whether he had made any notes concerning the engagement he replied: "No; we went in under instructions to sink the Colon." His orders had been to direct his fire at that vessel.

When Lieutenant Althouse was excused Captain Lemley introduced as evidence the reports made by Commodore Schley to the secretary of the navy of the engagement of May 31. In one of these dated June 3, Commodore Schley said: "Reconnaissance was intended principally to injure and destroy Colon. The fire was returned without delay by the heavy batteries to the east and to the west, entrance, large calibre, long range; reconnaissance developing satisfactorily the presence of the Spanish squadron, lying behind island near inner fort as they fired over our hill at random. Quite satisfied the Spanish fleet is there."

Lieutenant P. G. Dewey, nephew of Admiral Dewey, who was a watch officer on the Massachusetts, was the next witness. He placed the distance of the blockade line under Commodore Schley from the mouth of Santiago harbor at from five to eight miles, the distance being about the same day and night. There was, he said, no particular formation of the vessels.

The examination at this point was as follows:

Captain Lemley: "When you were at the western end of the blockade with the leading vessel making the turn, what orders were there for attacking if you saw the enemy coming out of the entrance?" "I do not believe we could have seen the enemy coming out. There was no orders I have knowledge of."

"Why do you think you would not have seen the enemy coming out if such had been the case?" "Owing to darkness and the distance from the harbor. For instance when we were at the western end of the line the ships could have come out and stood to the eastward without our being any the wiser unless they showed lights."

"How about the reverse of that proposition?" "I think it would have been the same in either case."

Captain Lemley then asked: "Did you have any conversation with the commanding officer of the flying squadron or any one in his presence in relation to the fire on the Colon or otherwise?" "I was told shortly before we started in the entrance the commodore wished to see the turret officers in the pilot house. I went to the pilot house and the commodore said he intended to go in a few moments and have a 'try' at the Colon and that he hoped we would sink her. I asked what speed we would make and was told 'about 10 knots.' I remarked at the time that I thought that was giving us very little chance at the Colon as she would be in sight between the head lines only a couple of minutes and the smoke from the guns would probably make our fire very slow. To the best of my recollection the commodore stated that we would have to do the best we could; that the speed would be 10 knots. Describing the range at which he had fired his guns on that occasion he said at first it was 7,000 yards under orders and then he had increased it to 9,500 yards, but that all the shots fell short. He said in reply to questions that the Spanish shore batteries did not give the American ships much trouble on that occasion. "None from the Colon came near," he said, "but two or three shots from the batteries fell about the Massachusetts at the time, one passing over it."

"What conclusion did you arrive at as to the caliber of the shore guns?" "I did not think they were of very large caliber—not over 6-inch."

In reply to a question by the court as to whether he was ordered to direct his fire on the Colon or on the batteries May 31, Lieutenant Dewey said that his orders were to direct his fire at the Colon directly, but he would not say whether Commodore Schley or Captain Higginson had given the order.

Lieutenant Francis Boughter, who was watch and division officer on the Marblehead during Commodore Schley's blockade off Santiago, was then called. He said the Marblehead and the Vixen were on picket duty between the shore line and the line of the blockade, the Marblehead being stationed three miles from the shore and to the westward, six miles from the Morro. He would not attempt to say how far outside the squadron was, but he could not see the ships after nightfall.

The court asked: "When was the Marblehead in such position at night while on picket duty off Santiago that the enemy's ships could have been seen had they attempted to leave the harbor?" That would depend on a great many circumstances, the state of the weather, the course they took and their success in keeping their ships dark and quiet."

Admiral Dewey: "The Marblehead was on picket duty. Could she have seen the enemy coming?" "If the enemy kept close to shore and we were three miles off during most of the time we could not have seen them; if the enemy had been south from the entrance which would have placed the enemy four miles off, we could not have seen them, provided they kept reasonably dark and quiet."

Mr. Rayner: "What was the purpose of the picket boats being there if they could not see the enemy?" "They were supposed to be there, I presume, for that purpose."

"Then if they were there for that purpose what was it that would have prevented them from accomplishing this object?" "The fact that they could not see a vessel if it ran at a distance of from two to two and one-half miles off at night."

"How far was the Vixen from the shore?" "I do not know."

"What was the distance between your vessel and the Vixen?" "I cannot say."

"Are you prepared to say then that if the enemy had come out of there, neither you nor the Vixen could have seen him?" "I answered the question as put by the court that we on the Marblehead could not have seen the enemy coming out under the conditions I have named first by keeping close in under the land and secondly by steering due south from harbor."

"What sort of nights were there?" "I do not remember particularly. I do not remember any gales or any particularly bad weather."

When Lieutenant Boughter was excused, Lieutenant Bennett, who was flag lieutenant on the New York in 1898, was called to the stand. After a few questions pertaining to the Cuban blockade, Captain Lemley said he had called Lieutenant Bennett not only for his direct examination, but for full cross-examination in accordance with the precept. Mr. Rayner stated, however, that he had no questions to ask, and the witness was excused, being succeeded by Lieutenant Charles Marshall, who was flag secretary to Admiral Sampson during the Spanish war.

Captain Chadwick testified concerning the code of signals arranged by Captain McCalla with the Cuban insurgents at Cienfuegos, of which he had said Captain McCalla had informed him upon his arrival at Key West May 19, 1898. He said he could not recall whom he had communicated the code, that he had not informed Commodore Schley, because Captain McCalla was to return immediately to Cienfuegos where Admiral Schley was stationed. Captain Chadwick recalled a conversation he heard between Admiral Sampson and Commodore Schley at Key West in which Commodore Schley told the admiral he was glad to be under his command and assured him that he would be entirely loyal to him. Captain Chadwick also said he heard Commodore Schley tell Admiral Sampson after the latter's arrival at Santiago that it was impossible to blockade the Spaniards at Santiago, if they desired to come out. Captain Chadwick said he objected to the telegram of congratulation Admiral Sampson sent Commodore Schley May 28, considering it uncalled for by the circumstances.

At 4 p. m. with Captain Chadwick still on the stand, court adjourned for the day.

COMMITTED GAIN'S CRIME.

Vietm Was His Brother-in-Law Whose Wife He Coveted.

Chicago, Oct. 11.—George Dolinski, convicted of murdering his brother-in-law, was hanged here Friday.

The crime for which Dolinski paid the extreme penalty was the murder of his brother-in-law, Anton Lisle, a year ago. Dolinski became infatuated with Mrs. Lisle, who was his wife's sister. That his clandestine wooing might not be interfered with Dolinski sent his wife on a visit to her parents in the old country. Lisle, however, became suspicious. Nov. 27 the two men met in a pasture north of Irving park. When the police found Lisle's body there were four bullet wounds in it and the throat was cut. Dolinski was arrested, but declared he and Lisle had quarreled about money matters and that he had been compelled to shoot his brother-in-law in self-defense. The evidence against Dolinski, while merely circumstantial, was sufficient to convince the jury that murder had been done in order that Dolinski might marry Mrs. Lisle.

Meanwhile Mrs. Dolinski in Europe heard that her husband had been arrested, but the report also said that it was for her own murder. Supposing that she could get him out of his predicament by appearing and thus disproving the charge that he had killed her, Mrs. Dolinski, with her infant, hurried back across the Atlantic and arrived in Chicago only to discover the real state of affairs. She did not abandon her husband, however, but did all in her power to aid him. She visited him in jail and when she learned that the supreme court had refused to grant a supersedeas, she fell in a faint. Dolinski made his last confession to Father Rapouz and spent the night in a barber chair, alternately dozing and gazing at his image in a mirror.

President's Choice.

Washington, Oct. 11.—President Roosevelt has decided definitely to appoint Vice President Clayton of Columbia, S. C., collector of internal revenue for that state to fill the vacancy caused by the death of E. A. Webster. The announcement will create surprise as it was understood pretty generally that Levis Blalock had been selected for the place. Dr. Clayton was formerly postmaster at Columbia. He is an organization Republican. It is understood that the president shortly will appoint R. C. Stewart to be postmaster at Newberry, S. C. Mr. Stewart is said to be distantly related to President Roosevelt. President Roosevelt has directed the appointment of Dr. W. P. Wilson of Philadelphia commercial museum, as commercial attaché of the United States to the coming congress of American republics.

Neely on Trial.

Washington, Oct. 11.—The war department is informed that the trial of C. F. W. Neely on charges of misappropriation of postal funds in Cuba, is in progress. No law officer of the United States government is engaged in the case, although testimony and depositions taken in this country have been forwarded to the prosecuting officer in Havana.

INSURGENT VICTORIES.

Venezuelan Troops Said to Have Gone Over to the Revolutionists.

New York, Oct. 11.—Advises from Ciudad Bolivar, announce that the Venezuela revolutionists, commanded by General Geronimo Zivas, attacked and defeated the Venezuelan government troops under General Arostegui, near Barrancas, in the state of Bermudez, and that General Arostegui was taken prisoner. It is announced that the Venezuelan troops have joined arms with the revolutionists. Government troops from San Felix, commanded by General Africano, sustained a defeat near that town at the hands of the revolutionists under General Vidal. General Africano escaped to San Felix.

It is reported that the Colombian government bought several rapid fire guns here and shipped them south. Within the last week upwards of 200 cases labeled "fireworks," besides firearms, cartridges, dynamite and fuse has been shipped to Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Central America, Cuba, Ecuador, Mexico, Uruguay and Colombia. It is believed revolutionists in Venezuela and Colombia will get most of the "fireworks."

Chasing the Brigands.

Sofia, Oct. 11.—Three battalions of the Sixth Bulgarian infantry regiment marched through the country between Dubnitsa and Samakov and searched the villages of the Riloklosters district, in one of which it was reported the brigands had concealed Miss Stone. Colonel Geschof at the head of a searching party composed of 300 Bulgarian infantry and 500 dragoons is scouring the ranges of Dospat and the Rhodopegebirgen. The reputed leader of the gang who killed Stambouloff has met his fate. Suspected of being associated in the capture of Miss Stone he was shot dead on the frontier near Kostendil. Though £1,000 reward has been placed on the bandit's head for the murder of Stambouloff, Hallo, the name under which he was known, was too influential a ruffian for the Bulgarian police to arrest. Four additional brigands have been captured near the Tschepino and a band of 20, fully armed, was discovered near Dubnitsa and driven into the mountains again.

Dumont's Flying Machine.

Paris, Oct. 11.—M. Santos-Dumont, having completed the repairs to his balloon, the Santos-Dumont, in spite of unfavorable predictions based on a sudden rise of the barometer, decided to start against the wind and maneuver around Longchamp race course. When the signal to start was given Dumont shot off like an arrow and in spite of a contrary wind, reached Longchamp at a speed impossible to estimate in the actual state of aeronautic science, but certainly as fast as a rapid automobile travels. For more than an hour the balloon maneuvered in all directions about the race course with perfect docility in the presence of numerous spectators. Dumont made another attempt Friday to win the Deutsche prize, but owing to an accident to the rudder of his flying machine, he was obliged to return to the starting place after going 50 yards.

HAS HAD FIVE HUSBANDS.

Only One of Mrs. Witwer's Liege Lords Living—Whereabouts Unknown.

Middletown, O., Oct. 11.—The fact has just been developed that Mrs. Mary Belle Witwer, the suspected wholesale poisoner, has had five husbands instead of four. John Williams, whose name has not heretofore figured in the sensational affair, left two days after the ceremony was performed and is the only one of the five husbands living. His present whereabouts is unknown. Mrs. Witwer secured a divorce on money furnished by Frank Brown, the Middletown paper hanger, who died rather suddenly some time after his marriage to Mrs. Witwer. The story comes from a son of Mr. Brown.

Water Supply For Mexico.

New York, Oct. 11.—A New York syndicate of capitalists is said to have acquired the concession granted some years ago to William Mackenzie, formerly traffic manager of the Mexican Gulf and Monterey railroad, for the purpose of bringing a new water supply to the city of Mexico. Warren H. Loss of this city has been awarded the contract for carrying out the undertaking which, it is estimated, will entail an expenditure of nearly $6,000,000 American currency and will mean the purchase, it is said, of no less than 35,000 tons of material in the United States.

Unsatisfactory News.

Washington, Oct. 11.—The state department has heard again by cable from Unfiled States Consul General Dickinson and Secretary of Legation Spencer Eddy touching the progress of negotiations looking to the release of Miss Stone. None of the details was made public, however, and all that can be gathered as to the status of the case is that the conditions are by no means as reassuring as were expected.

MASON WILL BE GOOD

Assures the President He Will Not Fight the Canal Treaty.

VISITORS AT THE WHITE HOUSE.

Attorney General Knox Advises President and Cabinet There Is No Law to Prevent Home Company Landing Cable on U.S. Shores.

Washington, Oct. 11.—There were few callers at the White House Friday before the cabinet assembled at 11 o'clock. Acting Secretary Adee presented the Colombian minister and General Rafael Reyes, formerly Colombian minister to France, now vice president of the republic. The latter spoke briefly to the president of the importance of the approaching Pan-American congress at City of Mexico, in which he said he thought the United States would be the guiding spirit. Senator Mason of Illinois, who returned to his home Friday, called to assure the president the report that he intended to fight the new canal treaty was entirely erroneous. To the president Senator Mason expressed the hope that the new treaty would be satisfactory.

Among other callers were the Peruvian minister, who was received in the blue parlor; General Dyrenforth, commander-in-chief of the Union Veteran Union, who invited the president to attend the grand encampment of the organization which will be held at Chicago Oct. 22-25. The president said he should be glad to attend, but called attention to the fact that his previous engagement at Yale college, where he receives the degree of LL. D. Oct. 23, probably would make it impossible for him to be present.

Five members of the cabinet, Secretary Long, Secretary Hitchcock, Secretary Wilson, Attorney General Knox and postmaster General Smith, were present at the cabinet meeting, which was devoted largely to the consideration of appointments under the various departments. The questions of southern appointments generally came up again, and the president reiterated his policy of appointing Republicans if suitable men as applicants could be found, and if not, of appointing gold Democrats. His policy in this respect meets the approval of the cabinet. The appointment of Dr. Clayton to the collectorship of internal revenue in South Carolina was considered in this connection.

Attorney General Knox made a verbal report to the president and cabinet regarding the result of his investigation into the Pacific cable question. His conclusion was that under the law of 1866 any domestic company could land any cable on the shores of the United States or its possessions. The president and cabinet were convinced by the verbal report that no executive action is called for at this time. The president will go over the subject more in detail with the attorney general, and will review the whole question in his message to congress. The law of 1866 is the same law under which the Postal Telegraph company claimed it had the power to land a cable at Havana, but the claim was disregarded at the time by the secretary of war.

Kansas Twister.

Clifton, Kan., Oct. 11.—The tornado which struck this section followed a heavy storm of rain and hail. The big black cloud could be seen approaching the town and the fire bells were rung to warn the inhabitants. The town was saved, however, by the tornado passing two miles to the west, traveling in a northeasterly direction. A committee of citizens drove at once to the path of the storm. L. C. Hoar's house and outbuildings, two miles west were found entirely swept away. The family had escaped by taking refuge in the cellar. The path of the tornado was from 40 to 80 rods wide and swept everything clear before it.

Money Missing.

Buffalo, Oct. 11.—A month ago the sum of $5,200, receipts of the Buffalo customs house was stolen, evidently while in transit from Buffalo to the sub-treasury in New York. The consignment of money as sent from Buffalo contained, according to Cashier Boyesen, $8,200. Of this sum $7,700 was in paper and the rest in gold and silver. The money stolen was all in paper currency. The discovery of the theft was made at New York. Collector Breck said he thought the thieves were known and that their arrest was but a matter of a short time.

West Virginia Mine Horror.

Wheeling, Oct. 11.—By an explosion in the New England mine, near Fairmount, it is believed the loss of life may be 25. The explosion occurred in a head in which 25 or 30 miners were working. It is known none can be alive because the bodies of four mules nearer the entrance have been taken out. The explosion was caused by a miner discharging a blast.

A NEWSPAPER calls attention to the fact that twice as much money will be spent in celebrating the Louisiana purchase as the whole territory originally cost.

The Indianapolis Sentinel is of the opinion that absolutely nothing can be expected of President Roosevelt by way of curbing the power of the trusts. Maybe the people, who are the greatest sufferers from the greed of the combines, will see that Mr. Roosevelt's successor will do some work along this line.

In Philadelphia all the newspapers but one, the Quay Inquirer, is opposing the Republican State, county and city tickets and supporting the Union-Democratic fusion tickets. Quayism, which is but another name for political corruption and rottenness, is destined to receive a severe rebuke in November.

E. C. WESTALL, chief of the money department at Havana, Cuba, took the surplus remittance of $4,000 to be paid into the treasury and laid it on a seat by his side while riding in an omnibus and leisurely read a newspaper. When he went to alight the package was gone, so he says. This moves the West Union Defender to remark that "Cuba seems to be a rich field for Uncle Sam's employees under Republican rule."

W. J. BRYAN, in his paper, The Commoner, commenting on the great struggle between capital and labor, says:

The strike is at present the laboring man's only protection, but it is at present a costly and ineffective one. The ballot box affords the only permanent and complete remedy. If the laboring men would march to the polls and vote with the party that favors arbitration and opposes government by injunction and black list, they would be able to protect their interests without a resort to strikes and lockouts.

Kentucky Appointments.

WASHINGTON, D. C. Oct. 10.—Representative Boreing and United States Pension Agent Leslie Combs and Collector of Internal Revenue Sam J. Roberts leave for Kentucky to-night. As a result of his conference with Representative Boreing, Leslie Combs, Commissioner Yerkes, Collector Roberts and Senator Deboe, President Roosevelt is fully conversant with the Kentucky situation, and in position to use his judgment in the matter of Kentucky appointments.

Banker Routs a Robber.

J. R. GARRISON, Cashier of the bank of Thornville, O., has been robbed of health by a serious lung trouble until he tried Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption. Then he wrote: "It is the best medicine I ever used for a severe cold or a bad case of lung trouble. I always keep a bottle on hand." Don't suffer with coughs, colds, or any throat, chest or lung trouble when you can be cured so easily. Only 50 cents and $1. Trial bottles free at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drug store.

STOCK CLEARANCE SALE!

A settlement of the estate of the late senior partner of this firm is to be made in January. A necessity of the event is the reduction of stock to the minimum. It is to our interest to convert goods into cash at the sacrifice of profit. It must be a clearance sale in the most comprehensive significance of the term—a sale in which neither cost, value nor loss get a moment's consideration. To reduce our immense stock is the only aim, the highest hope, the fixed determination. No man or woman who knows the value of a dollar, who understands this opportunity to save, will let it pass without taking advantage of it to the full as far as prudence and means permit. While many departments are represented here, it would take double the space this ad. occupies to tell of the dozens of other equally attractive bargains. Call on us, it's the only way to master all the facts.

SIX BIG VALUES!

No 1—Melange Cheviot, 45 inches wide, 50c, original price $1. In all the new fall shades. If you can judge values we are sure wisdom will guide you rightly when you see this unusual bargain.
 No. 2—Black Taffeta 27 inches wide, 75c, original price $1. Every yard guaranteed to wear. You may be surprised at the price, but you'll be more surprised at the quality.
 No. 3—Oneita Union Suits, 43c, instead of 75c. Soft and fine, well made and finished. Closely knit to withstand many washings. You know the garment too well to need further description.

None bigger, none better, none worthier ever offered the people of Maysville.

No. 4—Fancy Suitings, 42 and 45 inches wide, 20c. Original price 75c. Dark plaids and mixtures, strictly all wool. Effective for children's dresses, women's waists, wrappers and matinees.

No. 5—Women's Fleece-lined Stockings, 22½c, original price 35c. Fast black, silk fleece, ribbed or plain top, double sole and heel.

No. 6—Men's Two-piece Underwear, 43c, original price 75c. Best Maco cotton, finely woven, softly fleeced. A well cut and finished garment.

Everything mentioned above on sale now. Of course early comers have benefit of choice. No disappointments await you, complete satisfaction stamped on every offering.

A DOLLAR

is worth just what it will bring. If you had a barrel of them in the desert of Sahara they wouldn't buy a cup of water. Now we are certain there is no place in Maysville where a dollar will bring you as much as it will here during this sale. It might buy a larger package elsewhere but we are not talking of quantities. We refer to qualities and values. The following list tells what a dollar will do in some of our departments. It's not a list of exaggerations but a statement of facts.

A Dollar in the Linen Department will buy a splendid bleached Damask 72 inches wide in rose, fern, lily, clover and many other patterns. Original price $1½. The best bed spread you ever saw for a dollar and no wonder for they've been selling for $1½.

A Dollar in the Colored Dress Goods Department will buy an exquisite French Broadcloth worth $1½ or a Pannet Cloth as soft as velvet worth $1½ or a Scotch mixed Covert for walking Suits, worth $1½.

A Dollar in the Curtain Department will buy a pair of Nottingham Lace Curtains, or ten yards best Silk-lene, or two yds. good heavy Tapestry, or 20 yds. of Serim or one Rope Portiere, or 8 yds. of Curtain Swiss.

A Dollar in the Black Goods Department will buy a French Broadcloth, a Royal Soliel, a Peeble Cheviot, a Camel's Hair, a Milan Cloth, an English Poplin, all 1½ yards wide and worth $1½ a yard.

D. HUNT & SON.

AN INTERESTING SUIT.

Man Wants $10,000 Damages From City of Lexington For Causing the Death of His Infant Son.

An interesting suit for $10,000 damages has been filed against the city of Lexington by J. T. Batson, administrator of Otto Batson.

In his petition the plaintiff alleges that he and his family were residing at 371 North Upper street, city of Lexington; that on the 22nd day of April, 1901, while residing at that place, he was attacked by a mild type of smallpox, and that the defendant city, through its officers and agents, forcibly and against his will and consent, carried him to the city's eruptive hospital or pest house in the county, and confined him there for a period of about twelve days. He declares that on May 3rd, following, the defendant carried his sister, Josephine Batson, a member of his family, to the same hospital, and that on May 4th the city carried the other members of his family, consisting of his wife, Mrs. Lula Batson, a baby girl and his infant son, Otto Batson, aged two years and ten months, to the pest house, excluding them from all egress therefrom and all dealings and intercourse with the outside world for a period of about ten or twelve days, until and after the death of said Otto Batson, who was in perfect health and had no symptoms whatever of smallpox when taken from his home to the pest house; alleging that the child contracted the disease on May 6, 1901, and died May 10, 1901.

The plaintiff further alleges that the deceased and others of his family were confined in an uncleanly and badly ventilated room; that the food furnished the patients was coarse, unwholesome and utterly unfit for their use, and that by the willful and gross neglect on the part of the defendant's officers and agents the death of Otto Batson was brought about.

To Patrons of the Schools.

We believe that all children can now safely return to school. All contagious diseases have been checked and close attention is being given to the disinfection of the buildings.

SANITARY COMMITTEE,
 Of the Board of Education.

A protracted meeting conducted by E. T. Edmonds at Elizaville resulted in eighteen additions to the Christian Church.

The freight traffic department of the Chesapeake and Ohio road is to be taken from Cincinnati to Richmond, Va., where the general offices of the company are located.

In the event of coming changes in the Cabinet it is freely rumored at Washington that John W. Yerkes, of Kentucky, now Commissioner of Internal Revenue, will be offered a portfolio, probably that of the Treasury.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Dinger entertained last evening with a progressive euchre in honor of their guest, Miss Lizzie Fritz, of Cynthiana. Quite a number were present and the evening was passed with games. Refreshments were served at a late hour and all report a pleasant time.

Flemingsburg Times-Democrat: "The Maysville Board of Trade has determined to have another tobacco fair some time this winter, and we want our Fleming County tobacco men to get their samples in shape to take a good lot of premiums. We have the tobacco if they just handle it right."

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Chesapeake and Ohio Company will be held at Richmond, Va., a week from next Tuesday, and at that time E. D. Hotchkiss, who is now General Freight Agent of the company, with headquarters at Richmond, Va., will be made Second Vice President of the company. This will be a new office.

Commissioner's NOTICE!

MASON CIRCUIT COURT.

Julia A. Burris' Adm'r and als., Plaintiffs, vs.
 Birdie Lee Sharpe and als.

By an order of reference made by the Clerk of Mason Circuit Court, all creditors of Julia A. Burris, deceased, are hereby notified to appear before me at my office, No. 212 Court street, in the city of Maysville, Ky., on or before the 15th day of November, 1901, and duly present and prove their claims against the estate of said Burris. Given under my hand this, the 12th day of October, 1901. C. BURGESS TARTOR,

A Strong Woman

Iowa City, Iowa, Aug. 13, 1900.
 My wife was sick for three years. We tried everything without relief and spent much money. My wife tried Wine of Cardui and four bottles cured her. She took two more bottles, knowing she would have to work hard during the hay harvest. She attended to all her household duties and loaded and unloaded all the hay. This medicine gave her strength. Formerly she was weak and tired and could hardly get about, but since she has been taking Wine of Cardui she feels better and stronger than when 20 years of age. JOS. A. EISENHAUER.

Mrs. Eisenhauser had tried everything during her three years sickness and had spent considerable money. She was weak and could hardly get about for three years before she took

WINE OF CARDUI

Now, after taking the Wine of Cardui, she can work with her husband in the hay field. That is hard work, but it is not as injurious to a woman's health as labor in stores, factories and offices where thousands of girls are closely confined year after year. With the aid of Wine of Cardui a woman can do any reasonable work and enjoy good health. The health that Wine of Cardui brings makes a woman vigorous in body and mind. Freed from those terrible devastating pains a woman grows well and strong naturally. Wine of Cardui regulates the disordered menstruation and cures leucorrhoea, falling of the womb and periodical pains in the head and back caused by standing or sitting a long time in the same position. Theford's Black-Draught puts the bowels, stomach, liver, kidneys and blood in proper shape. Greatly increased strength and endurance is the natural result. Most cases are cured quickly. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui and 25 cent packages of Theford's Black-Draught.

THE BEE HIVE

WE MAKE A PROFIT ON ALL THE Dress Goods

WE ARE SELLING NOW!

We have the most superb collection of Dress Fabrics ever shown in Maysville. We don't know of a single NEW fabric that is missing in this collection. The finest Dress Goods House in the world is Arnold, Constable & Co., of New York City, and we have secured the exclusive control of their line for Maysville. Our buyer makes the Dress Goods department his hobby. He studies all the fashions in Dress Goods the world over. If he hears of a new fabric coming over from the other side a telegram brings us a piece on its arrival in New York. We have sold more fine Dress Goods this year than the old store sold the whole of last winter. Next year we expect to sell more than all the stores in Mason County together. If you have seen our line you cannot deny that we have the finest collection in town. No old goods in the lot. That's why we ask a small profit. Are we not entitled to it?

GRAND MASTER COLE.

An Informal Reception to be Given Tuesday Evening in His Honor by DeKalb Lodge.

DeKalb Lodge No. 12, I. O. O. F., appreciating the honor of having exalted to the position of Grand Master of the Grand Lodge, Independent Order Oddfellow of Kentucky, one of her members, and as a compliment to mark that appreciation, announces an informal reception to Grand Master Allan D. Cole, Tuesday evening, October 15, 1901, at I. O. O. F. Hall at 8 o'clock, to which Ringgold Lodge No. 27, Friendship Lodge No. 43, Daughters of Rebekah, and all affiliating members of the order are most cordially invited.

HENRY W. RAY, Noble Grand.

A Fiendish Attack.

An attack was lately made on C. F. Collier of Cherokee, Iowa, that nearly proved fatal. It came through his kidneys. His back got so lame he could not stoop without great pain nor sit in a chair except propped by cushions. No remedy helped him until he tried Electric Bitters which effected such a wonderful change that he writes he feels like a new man. This marvelous medicine cures backache and kidney trouble, purifies the blood and builds up your health. Only 50c. at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drug store.

Important Meeting For Men.

RI-ER NEWS.

Deckhands on Steamer Lizzie Bay on a Strike Friday—The Late Captain James T. Campbell.

The Lizzie Bay down Sunday. B. nanza up to-night.

Unless it rains soon the larger packets will have to quit.

The towboat J. B. Lewis caught fire at Charleston, W. Va., and was damaged to the extent of $4,000.

The steamboat stewards ask $60 a month on boats operating between Pittsburgh and Louisville, and $75 for the steamers running below Louisville. The stewards now receive $50 a month on boats operating out of Pittsburgh and $60 on boats running south of Louisville. The stewards have a membership of 130.

The late Captain James T. Campbell was a prince among steamboat men. He commanded the Fleetwood in her palmy days, and the writer was on his boat once when he summarily quieted two tough customers, who were carrying on at a great rate, until the Captain ordered them to desist. He conducted affairs on his boat the same as he would had it been his home. The old time steamboatmen are fast being ferried across the Dark River. Peace to his ashes.

The Captain of the White Collar packet Lizzie Bay had to call on the police on the boat's arrival here Friday morning to quell a number of striking roustabouts. The steamer was bound for Pomeroy and was loaded almost to the guards with freight. The trouble began before the boat reached Maysville, and on her arrival about fifteen of the hands quit and were paid off. They then tried to induce the rest to quit and when the mate ordered them away from the boat they made some threats. A telephone message brought Policeman Ort to the scene and his appearance quieted the gang. After the boat left, the strikers were given orders to get out of town, and they started down over the C. and O. to heat their way or foot it to Cincinnati.

Thursday evening the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. John Rattler, of near Maysville, was thrown open in honor of Miss Mamie Buckley, of this city, who is the charming guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Sauers, of Locust Grove. Music and dancing furnished amusement for the evening. Quite a number of young folks were present. At the hour of midnight refreshments were served, after which all returned to their homes with a pleasant good-night.

In the "Girl from Porto Rico," last night's audience witnessed one of the merriest and most enjoyable attractions ever offered to the theatre-going public of Maysville. Miss Fletcher's work was remarkably clever—quite as good as any that Maysville has ever witnessed—while Mr. Shearer's dry, droll humor quite captivated everyone. The support was first-class in every respect.

Mrs. John C. Everett, who is ill with diphtheria, was somewhat better this morning. Her son Burgees, who has been ill with scarlet fever, is about well.

MISS FLORENCE PEARCE WADSWORTH.

A Dayton, Ohio, Journal Compliments Her highly as an Accomplished Musician.

[Dayton, O., Herald.]

A critical audience, consisting largely of the musicians of Dayton, heard Miss Florence Pearce Wadsworth in her introductory recital at Miss Kofler's School of Music Monday evening, and were charmed with her singing, both her well-trained voice and her artistic use of it winning her encomiums of applause from her auditors.

A particularly pleasing departure from ordinary concert routine was the graceful way in which Miss Wadsworth played a number of her own accompaniments, demonstrating her ability as a pianist. She is a pupil of Mr. B. W. Foley, of Cincinnati, and has had every musical advantage that city affords. She succeeds in the faculty of Miss Kofler's school to the place formerly held by Miss Anna Griffiths, who now devotes her entire time to teaching in Mr. Foley's school at Cincinnati. It is to be hoped that Miss Wadsworth will give the Dayton public further opportunity of hearing her brilliant singing.

REV. GEO. E. RAPP TO WED.

The Only Way To Prove a Good Thing is to Test It!

That the GEM FOOD CHOPPER has had ample trial in this locality is demonstrated by the fact that we have completely sold out our large stock of these goods. The little machines went like the proverbial hot cakes, and still there is a cry for more. To meet the demand we have sent in a rush order for another lot, and we are expecting them to-day. The Gem solves the tough beefsteak problem to your entire satisfaction, and faithfully executes much other kitchen work it is called on to perform.

The Right Thing Has Been Found—A Maysville Citizen Shows the Way.

Once more we are indebted to a Maysville citizen for a public statement that throws more light on a subject of ever-increasing interest. People have been deceived by false misrepresentations from time immemorial. No wonder they are skeptical of all claims endorsed by the strangers, residing in far-distant parts of the Union. It is no longer necessary to accept such endorsement for local citizens are giving their testimony, and 'tis an easy matter for any reader to investigate the correctness of such evidence as the following:

Mr. Henry Bertram, boots and shoes, of 225 Market, says: "The great value of Doan's Kidney Pills are quickly proven. I procured them at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drugstore, corner of West Second and Market streets. In a very short time I was cured of backache which had troubled me for some time. I gave some to a friend who suffered greatly from kidney ailment and he said the results obtained from their use proved that Doan's Kidney Pills are a preparation which possesses remarkable value."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foeter-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Sole agents for the U. S.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.

All members of the Dr. Basil C. Duke Chapter, U. D. C., are requested to meet at the new Public Library Monday morning, October 14th, at 10 o'clock.

Mrs. T. J. CHENOWETH, President.

The marriage of John Goff Bedford, of Winchester, and Miss Emma Bell Spencer of Elizaville, Fleming County, is announced for October 30th.

Mr. DeBruil, who married Miss Nannie McDaniel of this city, is proprietor of a big poultry establishment at Summerside, on the Cincinnati, Georgetown and Portsmouth railroad. He is enlarging the establishment by the erection of 900 feet of new buildings—nearly doubling its capacity. Among other improvements under way at the Summerside place is the erection of a large barn, for the use of a fine herd of Jersey cattle which is being gathered up. Mr. Dawson McDaniel, his wife's brother, will have charge of this branch of the establishment. Mr. DeBruil hatches 360 chickens at a time, selling them in the Cincinnati market as squabs, a new gastronomic fad, when they reach a weight of from four to five ounces. At this age they bring 25 cents each.

In Colored Circles.

Mrs. Hattie Anderson, who has been away on an extended trip, has returned home. Mrs. Grayson has returned from the Queen City.
